

2008
Western Mensurationists'
Invited Speaker

Dr. Boris Zeide
Professor of Forestry
School of Forestry
University of Arkansas
Monticello, Arkansas
870-460-1648
zeide@uamont.edu

Born in Moscow, Russia on March 30, 1937

Professor of Forestry School of Forestry, University of Arkansas	28 Years
Assistant Professor of Forestry Cook College, Rutgers University	2 Years
Bullard Forest Research Fellow Harvard Forest, Harvard University	2 Years
Senior Lecturer, Department of Botany, Hebrew University, Israel	2 Years
Head of the Forestry Laboratory, The All-Union Research Institute of Standardization, Moscow, Russia	12 Years
The University of Tras-os-Monts e Alto Doruo, Portugal	1999
Mediterranean Forestry Research Laboratory, France	1996
National Institute of Global Climate and Ecology, Russia	1990, 1994
Biosphere Reserve and Natural Laboratory, Mexico	1992
Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources, Canada	1991
The Polytechnical University of Madrid, Spain	1991
The Belle Baruch Forest Science Institute, USA	1989
The University of Joensuu, Finland	1988

Major impact on Mensurational applications in the Pacific Northwest:

Standardization of Growth Curves. Boris Zeide. 1978. Journal of Forestry

Approximately 160 publications in forestry world-wide, 59 articles in refereed journals.